

Name: Alien X

One-line Introduction: Alien X is the Omnitrix's DNA sample of a Celestialsapien from the Forge of Creation.

Appearance: Alien X is a humanoid alien with a solid black body, excluding his white hands. His body is covered in tiny white star-like spots, resembling a starry night sky. He has green eyes without pupils and three horn-like protrusions on his forehead. In Omniverse, Alien X's chin is bigger, his body is more muscular, his horns are smaller, and the stars on his body are brighter. He wears the Omnitrix/Ultimatrix/Omnitrix symbol on his chest.

History: Alien X first appeared in "X = Ben + 2", where he stopped a flood caused by a broken dam. Ben, frustrated by the arguing between Serena and Bellicus, vowed not to use Alien X again. The same scene reoccurred in a flashback in "The Ultimate Enemy: Part 2". In "The Forge of Creation", Ben briefly transformed into Alien X, hoping to learn the location of the Forge of Creation, but Professor Paradox reverted him. In "So Long, and Thanks for All the Smoothies", Alien X failed to stop the Annihilarrgh from destroying the universe, but Ben convinced Bellicus and Serena to recreate a near-identical copy. In "Universe vs. Tennyson", Alien X defeated the Galactic Gladiator. In "Weapon XI: Part 1", Alien X battled the Rooters and the brainwashed Amalgam Kids. In "A New Dawn", Skurd used Alien X's DNA to create a sword for Chromastone, and Alien X appeared briefly. In an alternate timeline in "Ben 10,000 Returns", Negative Alien X was mentioned, where Albedo was trapped motionless for nearly a year. Alien X also appears in cutscenes in the video game "Ben 10 Alien Force: Vilgax Attacks" (Xbox 360, Wii, PS2, and PSP versions) and as a playable Exosuit in "Project Exonaut".

Weaknesses: Alien X's primary weakness is the requirement for all three personalities (Serena, Bellicus, and Ben) to agree before any action can be taken. This can result in inaction or delayed responses. Alien X's reality warping capabilities have limits, as he couldn't reverse the destruction of the universe caused by the Annihilarrgh; he had to recreate it instead. His powers may be limited or non-functional in other universes depending on cosmic laws and internal astronomy. Other Celestialsapiens can neutralize and reverse his actions. He cannot manipulate manna directly without altering the universe. Magic spells could cancel his powers. Professor Paradox and the DNA Scanner can force Ben to revert. Alien X is vulnerable to having his powers absorbed by Osmosians and entities with similar powers such as Darkstar. His life force can be drained by a Vladat, and he cannot survive on Anur Vladias. He can be affected by a Nemuina's sleeping dust, and his personalities can be scared by Toepick's species. However, any of these weaknesses can be negated if Alien X decides so.

Powers and Abilities: Alien X is capable of warping reality, time, and space, and his thoughts can become real. He can create and recreate entire universes at will. Alien X is nearly invulnerable, surviving the destruction of the universe by the Annihilarrgh unharmed. He can contain the explosion of an Annihilarrgh. Alien X can create time waves to reverse events and energy vortexes to suck in other beings. He possesses telekinesis, mind control, and can deflect energy attacks. Alien X can shapeshift, teleport, generate force fields, alter his size, and self-duplicate. He can regenerate limbs, levitate, and fly at high speeds. Alien X possesses superhuman strength, being able to destroy large planets. He can survive in the vacuum of space, and his body is rigid. Alien X can pierce through the Contumelia's extradimensional field and generate miniature black holes. Alien X can see through objects.

Personality: Alien X has three distinct personalities: Serena, the "voice of love and compassion"; Bellicus, the "voice of rage and aggression"; and Ben, the "voice of reason." All three voices combine to form Alien X's speech. Serena and Bellicus often argue, making it difficult to focus on present tasks and leaving Alien X's body trapped in place until an agreement is made.
