

Name: Ultimate Way Big

One-line Introduction: Ultimate Way Big is the Ultimatrix's artificially evolved DNA sample of a To'kustar.

Appearance: Ultimate Way Big is almost identical to Way Big in Alien Force and Ultimate Alien. The white parts of his body, except for his chest, hands, and face, are changed to blue, and he has two curved horns on the left and right sides of his head. The red parts of his body, except for his shoulders and cheeks, are now white, and the black parts of his body are now red. He is also bigger in size than Way Big and wears the evolved Ultimatrix symbol on his chest.

History: Ultimate Way Big first appeared in The Ultimate Enemy: Part 2, where he battled Dagon but was eventually defeated by the acid rain. He is the last Ultimate Form introduced in Ultimate Alien. Ultimate Way Big was hinted at on the DVD cover of Ben 10 Ultimate Alien: The Ultimate Ending, where his back is shown, with him facing Ultimate Vilgax.

Weaknesses: Ultimate Way Big was shown to be vulnerable to Dagon's acid rain.

Powers and Abilities: Ultimate Way Big can shoot a powerful cosmic ray as either projectiles or beams from the outer edge of his right hand by crossing his arms together. He is also able to create cosmic energy saws that were able to cut off one of Dagon's tentacles. Ultimate Way Big can spin around fast enough to repel Dagon's laser beams. He can also jump extremely high and fly. Ultimate Way Big is stronger than Way Big, as he was able to pull Dagon to the ground, who was gargantuan when compared to Ultimate Way Big's size at the time. Ultimate Way Big has immense durability, being able to withstand Dagon's energy beams.

Personality: Not mentioned.
