

Name: Four Arms

One-line Introduction: Four Arms is the Omnitrix's DNA sample of a Tetramand from the planet Khoros.

Appearance: Four Arms is a twelve-foot tall, humanoid alien with well-developed muscles, two pairs of four-fingered arms, and dense armor-plated red skin. He has a black stripe that goes from his chin to his lower lip and four eyes, with a main pair and a smaller pair below them. He lacks ears or a nose. He has whisker-like spikes on each forearm and two-toed feet. In the Original Series, Four Arms wore a white T-shirt with a black line going down it and black pants with a strap on each foot, revealing his two toes and the back of each foot, and black fingerless gloves. He wore the original Omnitrix symbol on his upper left shoulder. His eyes were orange-yellow, and he had no hair. In Ultimate Alien, 16-year-old Four Arms wore gold wrist and ankle bands, a pair of black underwear that has a gold waistband, and two golden sashes that went across his chest. His eyes were recolored green, he had a black ponytail, and he wore the Ultimatrix symbol on his chest. In Omniverse, 11-year-old Four Arms looks similar to his Original Series design, except his eyes are recolored green, his skin is a lighter tone, and he has a second set of pectorals for his other set of arms. 16-year-old Four Arms has three short spikes on the top of his head, a mustache-like design, the black stripe on the top of his head is replaced with small spikes and the same second set of pectorals as his 11-year-old self. He has no hair and wears a black tank top-like shirt with one large green stripe in the middle, black pants, a green and white belt where the Omnitrix symbol is located, and black fingerless gloves with green cuffs at the wrists. Kevin's Four Arms looked the same as Ben's did in the Original Series, but with paler skin and no Omnitrix symbol. Gwen's Four Arms had darker skin, hair and clothes based on Gwen's, and lacked the vertical black stripe sported by Ben's version. Just like Ben, Gwen's Four Arms wore the Omnitrix symbol on her upper left shoulder. Ben 10,000's Four Arms had a better-developed forehead, more muscle mass, a different T-shirt design, a pair of jutting incisors and bigger thorns on arms. He wore the Omnitrix symbol on his chest.
