

Name: Chromastone

One-line Introduction: Chromastone is the Omnitrix's DNA sample of a Crystalsapien from the planet Petropia.

Appearance: Chromastone is a humanoid alien made of extremely durable crystal, based on silicon. His body is overall indigo, with several dark lines and spots. His hands and face are magenta, and he has six magenta shards on his back, two on his chest, and one on the top of his head resembling a horn. His face consists of a mouth and one large green eye at the center. In Alien Force and Ultimate Alien, Chromastone wore the original Omnitrix/Ultimatrix on his chest. In Heroes United, Chromastone had green teeth and some of his dark lines were missing. In Omniverse, Chromastone has two unique designs. The first, which appears in Trouble Helix, looked mostly the same as in Alien Force and Ultimate Alien except that the crystals on his back and head were much longer and the Omnitrix symbol is on his chest. The second design, which appeared in A New Dawn, is drastically different with three additional crystal shards on each shoulder and arm, one on each knee, and two on the sides of his head. The crystals on his chest and the four small shards on his back are gone. His neck is now longer, his face has a magenta chin that resembles a mouth guard, and he now speaks without moving his mouth at all. He has black rock hands with five magenta crystalline fingers. He now wears a green jumpsuit with white stripes on the waist, green-and-white striped gauntlets on his wrists and legs, and the Omnitrix symbol has been relocated to his right pectoral.

History: Chromastone first appeared in All That Glitters, where he defeated a zombified Lucy. In Be-Knighted, Chromastone fought the Dragon. In The Gauntlet, Chromastone battled a Techadon-enhanced Cash. The same scene reoccurred twice on TV during Will Harangue's news report in Fame. In Paradox, Chromastone prepared to fight the Trans-Dimensional Creature. In Darkstar Rising, Chromastone prepared to battle a group of Forever Knights. In Good Copy, Bad Copy, Chromastone tried to fight Negative Spidermonkey. In Birds of a Feather, Chromastone saved Simian. In Uneearthed, Chromastone battled some DNAliens. In Voided, Chromastone defeated some Null Guardians. In Inside Man, Chromastone burnt into a truck and fought some DNAliens. In Vengeance of Vilgax: Part 2, Chromastone escaped the Omnitrix and battled Murk Upchuck until he was knocked out by Kevin, prompting Murk Upchuck to recapture Chromastone. Later, Chromastone fought Vilgax but was defeated and got shattered. As his remains reformed into Diamondhead, remnants of Chromastone's DNA were fused with Diamondhead's, indirectly removing Chromastone from the Omnitrix. In The Secret of Chromastone, Ben regained Chromastone. In Fame, Chromastone was defeated by Bivalvan. In Where the Magic Happens, Chromastone battled some Scrutins. In Absolute Power: Part 1, Chromastone was defeated by Gwen. In The Big Story, Chromastone was used by a Plant Clone of Ben to fight the real Ben and his team. In Viktor: The Spoils, Chromastone briefly appeared when King Xarion was looking through the Ultimatrix for Amphibian. In The Creature From Beyond, Chromastone searched for the Lucubra. In Ben 10/Generator Rex: Heroes United, Chromastone appeared as one of the many aliens when Ben was explaining his story to Rex. In Enemy of My Frenemy, Chromastone attempted to absorb the source of energy in Charmcaster's machine only to be overwhelmed and forcibly reverted instead. In The Ultimate Enemy: Part 2, Chromastone stopped Dagon from killing Sir George, but was eventually defeated by the former. In Trouble Helix, Chromastone allowed Blukic and Driba to test their new weapon on him. In A New Dawn, Chromastone broke through the extradimensional field of the Contumelia's machine by using a sword provided by Skurd, who used Alien X's DNA to create it, to retrieve Maltruant's Annihilarrgh. Later, Chromastone appeared for a short time when Ben was cycling through his aliens. In A Blast From the Past, Chromastone defeated some DNAliens. In A Brief Mystery of Time, Chromastone destroyed the DNAliens' time-loop generator. In Double Trouble, Chromastone was grabbed by Negative Humungousaur. In Ship Shape, Chromastone battled Ship. In Collectible Heroes, Chromastone was one the aliens Ben turned into to overload The Collector's computer. In Target Rath, Chromastone defeated Jarret's henchman before switching into Rath. In Ben 10 Issue 1, Chromastone defeated Ssserpent's henchmen.

Weaknesses: Chromastone is incapable of absorbing certain types of energy, such as the energy of the extradimensional field that protects the Contumelia from the Annihilarrgh. Chromastone has a limit to how much energy he can absorb at once, as he once tried to absorb all the manna from the Sorcerer's Engine but was overwhelmed to the point of disintegration. Chromastone also can have trouble absorbing and conducting electricity if the rate is too high. He also cannot absorb the energy released by an Annihilarrgh because he would be instantly disintegrated if he tried. Chromastone can be controlled by Vladats via their Corrupturas.

Powers and Abilities: Chromastone has the ability to produce rainbow-colored energy from inside his body, which he can expel as powerful beams from his hands, shards, or eye. He has dynakinesis, allowing him to control the direction of his energy. Chromastone can corrupt and manipulate external sources of energy, such as manna. He can absorb nearly any kind of energy, including lasers, electricity, manna, and electromagnetic radiation, converting it into his rainbow energy. Absorbing external energy supercharges his beams. Chromastone is able to redirect energy attacks instead of absorbing them. He is resistant to electricity and can conduct it back at the attacker. Chromastone is capable of instant levitation and flight. He possesses enhanced strength and durability due to his crystalline skin. Chromastone is capable of jumping exceptionally high, and is quite agile and fast. He can survive in the vacuum of space and is immune to possession from a Xenocyte. Chromastone is resistant to intense heat, has the power to generate focused gamma rays, and can project a beam of light for illumination. He can use his energy to increase the temperature of his body and can create a rainbow in the sky if a big enough light source shines through him.
