

Name: Upchuck

One-line Introduction: Upchuck is the Omnitrix's DNA sample of the Perk and Murk subspecies of Gourmand from the destroyed planet Peptos XI and currently Peptos XII.

Appearance: Perk Upchuck is described as a vaguely humanoid amoeba-like creature with green skin, six sprout-like growths on the back of his head, a dark-green patch of skin on his head, light-green skin on his face and belly, and a crooked teeth overbite. He has ventilation slits on his face and a green tail. In the Original Series, Perk Upchuck had white eyes and wore a black open-front suit with white over-sleeves, white bands around his legs, and white padding under his three-toed feet, also bearing the original Omnitrix symbol on his left hand. In Omniverse, 16-year-old Perk Upchuck is unclothed with green eyes and the Omnitrix on his stomach, while the 11-year-old version is similar to the Original Series but with green eyes and Omnitrix symbol and bare feet with short claws. Murk Upchuck is also a vaguely humanoid amoeba-like creature with swampy-green skin, a tanned stomach and muzzles, black sprouts and black-green spots on his tail, limbs, and back. His eyes are sharp and green, with whisker-like lines and more aligned teeth with visibly sharp canine teeth, and a short, straightened tail. In Ben 10-Generator Rex: Heroes United, Murk Upchuck had longer black stripes on his face and only two lines instead of three, with claws attached to his hands through finger stubs. In Omniverse, Murk Upchuck resembles his previous design, except that his claws are longer and bigger, his sprouts are brighter, he has less spots on his body, and only two teeth in the shape of an underbite, and the markings on his face are thinner and contained by the face. Murk Upchuck wears the original Omnitrix/Ultimatrix/Omnitrix symbol on his stomach. Mad Ben's Perk Upchuck has skin coloring that looks more like that of a Murk Gourmand, mirrored teeth, a black helmet with a spike and orange glasses, spiked shoulder pads connected by a strap around the Omnitrix on his chest, orange bandages around his wrists, and orange eyes and Omnitrix symbol.

History: Perk Upchuck first appeared in The Visitor, where he was unlocked by Xylene and defeated the Mecha-Droid. He was later defeated by Myaxx in Ben 10: Secret of the Omnitrix and by Turbine in Ben 4 Good Buddy. In Ben 10 vs. Negative 10: Part 2, Perk Upchuck defeated the Red Knight and Sir Driscoll and accidentally destroyed Mt. Rushmore. Five years prior to Omniverse, in Evil's Encore, Perk Upchuck stopped Dr. Animo's control of the Plumber Base and again destroyed Mt. Rushmore, and in From Hedorium to Eternity, he broke one of Mr. Baumann's car windows. In Alien Force, Perk Upchuck was locked by the Omnitrix's reconfiguration in Ben 10 Returns: Part 1. Murk Upchuck first appeared in War of the Worlds: Part 1, unlocked by the Master Control, battling DNAliens and unsuccessfully attempting to destroy the Hyperspace Jump Gate. He later captured Chromastone in Vengeance of Vilgax: Part 2 and defeated Charmcaster's animated Mr. Smoothy in In Charm's Way. In Ultimate Alien, Rude Ben used Murk Upchuck to battle Sir Urien in Duped, but was defeated. Perk Upchuck was re-unlocked by Ben 10,000 in Ben 10,000 Returns. Murk Upchuck was defeated by the Forever Knights in The Purge. In Ben 10/Generator Rex: Heroes United, Murk Upchuck ate the Alpha Nanite's container, and Gwen as Murk Upchuck helped rescue Ben in Inspector #13. Murk Upchuck was also seen confronting Albedo in a dream in Night of the Living Nightmare. In Omniverse, Upchuck appeared four times in Tummy Trouble, with Perk Upchuck defeating Nyancy Chan's tigers and both Upchucks helping settle peace negotiations between the Gourmands, and Perk Upchuck helped eat Peptos XI. Murk Upchuck was showcased for Ben 23 in Store 23. Perk Upchuck was defeated by Ultimate Albedo in A Fistful of Brains, ate Crabdozer before spitting out Ultimate Panuncian in For a Few Brains More, fought the Rooters in The Rooters of All Evil, defeated Rook at the Golden Fist Tournament in No Honor Among Bros, and defeated Thunderpig in Universe vs. Tennyson. Perk Upchuck appeared briefly in A New Dawn. In Mad Ben's Timeline, Mad Perk Upchuck defeated Ben Prime, Ben 23, and Dr. Psychobos in It's a Mad, Mad, Mad Ben World: Part 1.

Weaknesses: Upchuck has a limit to how much he can fit in his mouth. If he ingests too much matter or powerful energy, it can be difficult for him to hold it down, causing his stomach or cheeks to inflate and reduce his mobility. Energy exploding within his mouth can also cause him to inflate. He may struggle to eat living creatures due to their movement inside his stomach. Upchuck's hunger can be exploited. In the Original Series, Upchuck was unable to consume human food, but this is no longer true as of Omniverse.

Powers and Abilities: Both Perk and Murk Upchuck share the same abilities. They possess three strong, adhesive tongues that can stretch to great lengths. Upchuck's mouth can stretch to swallow large objects, connecting to a trans-space bladder dimension where Gourmands store food. He can eat solid matter, energies, liquids, and living creatures. Items ingested can be converted into explosive balls of vomit. Upchuck can fly by propelling himself with his vomit and survive in space. He has strong jaws, diamond-hard teeth, and a gastrointestinal tract that allows him to eat almost any material. Upchuck is durable, can jump high, and has enhanced reflexes. He can carry objects and creatures in his stomach without converting them into vomit. Upchuck can spit out slime that is slippery and can melt ice.
